

COMPLIANCE & AML DUE DILIGENCE FORM

When using funds originating from operations with CDP (e.g. when CDP acts as lender, co-lender, guarantor, counter-guarantor, investor or similar, hereinafter “CDP funds”), CDP requests counterparties and/or beneficiaries (hereinafter jointly “Entity”) to meet, acknowledge and agree with CDP’s principles and standards for preventing money laundering (“AML”), terrorism financing (“CFT”), tax avoidance, international sanctions (“IS”) and bribery and corruption (“ABC”). Those principles and standards inspire CDP policies and procedures and meet the most relevant and recognized international standards (e.g. FAFT Recommendations).

The information to be provided through the following document and the acknowledgement of the principles described therein will allow CDP to conduct an enhanced due diligence on persons and entities benefitting from CDP funds and will contribute to ensure CDP’s policies are respected by all relevant stakeholders.

The document consists of the following sections:

Part I. Covenant of Compliance

- Commitment to comply, when using CDP funds, with the relevant principles and standards inspiring CDP’s policies and procedures set out in European Union and international legislation and best practices on anti-money laundering, combating terrorism financing, anti-bribery and corruption and international sanction (as detailed in the Compliance policies, procedures and standards section);

Part II. Fund Details

- Section 1 (Fund Manager Profile) collects information necessary to identify the Fund manager signing the Form;
- Section 2 (Fund Profile) collects information concerning the Fund Compliance and investment standards applied ;

Part III. Compliance policies, procedures and standards

- Section 1 (Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing) collects information necessary to understand: (a) the AML/CFT jurisdiction and the quality of the supervisory regime to which the Entity is subject; (b) the AML internal policies and procedures it has adopted;
- Section 2 (Tax Transparency) collects information necessary to understand standards it endorses aimed at ensuring compliance with the applicable national, European or international tax avoidance laws and principles;
- Section 3 (International Sanctions) collects information necessary to understand the standards the Entity endorses on International Sanctions;
- Section 4 (Anti-Bribery and Corruption) collects information necessary to understand the standards the Entity endorses on anti-bribery and corruption.

Each Compliance policies, procedures and standards section includes the principles and standards which the Entity benefitting from CDP funds is required to agree with and implement when using CDP funds, and which are part of the Covenant of Compliance.

Entity acknowledges and agrees that CDP may carry out checks aimed at verifying the validity and truthfulness of information and declarations provided in this form and require any further document and information it deem it necessary for such purposes.

PART I. COVENANT OF COMPLIANCE

Without prejudice to any representations, warranties, undertakings or other statements given or agreed in contracts, in finance documents or in other related or similar documents, in the case that the Entity enters a contractual relationship with CDP, it represents and warrants the following:

- A) represents and warrants, to all legal effects and also with regards to Entity's Group companies involved in the activities that will benefit from CDP support and their respective directors, managers and employees, that to its knowledge:

- a) require the Entity to provide any information and take all necessary remedial actions it deems satisfactory;
 - b) consider the Entity not to be eligible to be entered with CDP into future contracts and to receive new potential CDP funds;
 - c) seek whatever other remedy available under applicable laws.

CDP reserves the right not to enter any contract with an Entity that has not issued the Covenant of Compliance signed by a duly authorized person.

The undersigned is duly authorized to issue this declaration in the name and on behalf of the Entity and is aware that CDP will fully rely on the truthfulness, exactness, completeness and accuracy of this and the information contained therein.

Signatory name:		Role held:
Place and Date:		Signature:

¹ It being understood that if CDP enters a contractual agreement with the Entity and non compliance with the Covenant of Compliance also results in a breach of the representations, warranties, undertakings or other statements given or agreed in contracts, in finance documents or in other related or similar documents, CDP may be entitled to adopt the contractual remedies therein defined (e.g. in case of an investment transaction in shareholdings and in investment funds or other participation instruments, withdrawal from the investment or related partnerships).

3. Purpose and legal basis of the data processing

The personal data are processed during the normal activity of CDP according to the following purposes: a) Purposes strictly connected with and instrumental to the establishment and management of relations with the customers pursuant to art. 6 paragraph 1 letter b) GDPR; b) purposes deriving from legal obligations, regulations, EU law, provisions issued by authorities authorized for the purpose by the law or by supervisory and control bodies pursuant to art. 6 paragraph 1 letter c) GDPR. Provision of personal data for the above purposes is necessary to finalize, carry out or continue the contract relationship with CDP.

4. Data processing method

In relation to the purposes specified, processing of the personal data is carried out by manual, IT and telematic instruments using logic appropriate for the purposes and, in any case, such as to guarantee the security and confidentiality of the data. Protection is ensured also in the presence of innovative instruments introduced by CDP.

5. Storage of personal data

Your personal data will be stored only for the time necessary for the purposes for which they are collected in accordance with the principle of minimization pursuant to art. 5.1.c) GDPR.

6. Categories of subjects to whom the data can be communicated

For pursuit of the above purposes, CDP may communicate your personal data to third parties if said data communication operations are instrumental to the services requested and provided. Your data may furthermore be communicated to managers of private credit information systems. Further communications will be possible to guarantors, if relevant to the existing guarantee relationship. Your data may furthermore be communicated to companies forming part of the group, for administrative and accounting purposes, and to third parties in compliance with legal requirements. The subjects belonging to the above-mentioned categories perform the function of Data Supervisor or operate totally autonomously as distinct Data Controllers.

7. Transfer data outside the EU

CDP will carry out the processing in accordance with the procedures permitted by the current law, such as consent of the Data Subject, adoption of standard clauses approved by the European Commission, selection of subjects adhering to international programs for the free circulation of data or operating in countries considered safe by the European Commission.

8. Rights of the Data Subject

You are informed that art. 15-22 GDPR entitle the Data Subjects to exercise specific rights. These rights can be exercised by request sent by post to Cassa depositi e prestiti S.p.A., via Goito, n. 4, 00185 Rome, att. Personal Data Protection Officer, or by email directly to said Officer, at the contacts provided in point 1. The Data Subject also has the right to raise complaints with the Italian Data Protection Authority.
