E. IDENTIFICATION OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNER

“Beneficial owner” means any natural person(s) who ultimately owns or controls the Customer and/or the natural person(s) on whose behalf a transaction or activity is being conducted. In this form, it is possible to indicate up to three beneficial owners. Replicate the following section to indicate additional beneficial owners, if the following sections should be replicated.

The criteria used to determine the beneficial ownership of the Customer must be specified from the following:

1. Natural person who holds:
 - a) a shareholding of 25% plus one share or an ownership interest of more than 25% in the customer (direct ownership);
 - b) A shareholding of 25% plus one share or an ownership interest of more than 25% in the Customer, held through subsidiaries, trust companies or intermediaries (indirect ownership).

2. Natural person who ultimately controls the Customer through the control of an enough percentage of the voting rights or ownership interest in that entity, including through bearer shareholdings, or through control via other means.

In addition to the above, the ‘control through other means’ such as for example: close family relationships, historical or contractual relationships, constitutes a further case of control; using, enjoying or benefiting from the assets owned by the customer; responsibility for strategic decisions that fundamentally affect the business practices or general direction of a legal person; differentiated voting rights; the power to appoint the majority of the members of the board of directors or similar officers of the company, especially in cases where the appointment rights do not depend on the shareholding held; control through debt instruments, where a creditor or third party can control a legal entity or influence a shareholder based on the provisions of the loan agreement; control, shared or otherwise, through formal or informal agreements with owners, partners or companies; the use of formal or informal fiduciary appointment agreements.

3. Natural person(s) who hold the position of senior managing official(s) if, after having exhausted all possible means, no person under points (1) and (2) is identified.
4. In the case of trusts, all the following persons:
 - a) the settlor(s);
 - b) the trustee(s);
 - c) the protector(s), if any;
 - d) the beneficiaries or where the individuals benefiting from the legal arrangement or entity have yet to be determined, the class of persons in whose main interest the legal arrangement or entity is set up or operates;
 - e) any other natural person exercising ultimate control over the trust by means of direct or indirect ownership or by other means.

INFORMATION NOTICE FOR CUSTOMERS

1. Data Controller

Pursuant to the European Regulation 2016/679 (below GDPR), Cassa Depositi e Prestiti S.p.A. (below, CDP), with head office in Rome, via Goito n. 4 (00185), processes your personal data in its capacity as "Data Controller" in compliance with the provisions of law and informing you of the use of said personal data. The Personal Data Protection Officer can be contacted by writing to the email address privacy@cdp.it.

2. Sources and type of data processed

The personal data held by CDP are collected directly from the customers or from third parties, for example Public Administrations, Public Registers, Chambers of Commerce, Databases of private companies. The data processed by CDP can include personal information (first name, surname, date of birth, address, image, sex, marital status, tax identification no., etc.) and contact information, as well as in specific cases the photo of the identification document (front/back), personal data present in the identification document used and photo of the face present in the video selfie procedure.

Furthermore, in complying with specific requirements relative to management of the business relationship (for example mandatory communications to the Authorities), and in the case of customer communications, CDP may process particular categories of data in accordance with art. 9 GDPR and data relating to criminal convictions and offences in accordance with art. 10 of the GDPR.

3. Purpose and legal basis of the data processing

The personal data are processed during the normal activity of CDP according to the following purposes: a) Purposes strictly connected with and instrumental to the establishment and management of relations with the customers pursuant to art. 6 paragraph 1 letter b) GDPR; b) purposes deriving from legal obligations, regulations, EU law, provisions issued by authorities authorized for the purpose by the law or by supervisory and control bodies pursuant to art. 6 paragraph 1 letter c) GDPR. Provision of personal data for the above purposes is necessary to finalize, carry out or continue the contract relationship with CDP.

4. Data processing method

In relation to the purposes specified, processing of the personal data is carried out by manual, IT and telematic instruments using logic appropriate for the purposes and, in any case, such as to guarantee the security and confidentiality of the data. Protection is ensured also in the presence of innovative instruments introduced by CDP.

Furthermore, it may happen that CDP uses specific identification techniques carried out through an automated technique based on the comparison between the image of the document you upload, and a video of your face recorded in real time. The verification activity is aimed at authenticating the documents and comparing the portrait of the face present on an identity document (e.g., identity card, passport, driving license, health card) with the image extracted from a video selfie taken directly by you.

5. Storage of personal data

Your personal data will be stored only for the time necessary for the purposes for which they are collected in accordance with the principle of minimization pursuant to art. 5.1.c) GDPR.

6. Categories of subjects to whom the data can be communicated

For pursuit of the above purposes, CDP may communicate your personal data to third parties if said data communication operations are instrumental to the services requested and provided. Your data may furthermore be communicated to managers of private credit information systems. Further communications will be possible to guarantors, if relevant to the existing guarantee relationship. Your data may furthermore be communicated to companies forming part of the group, for administrative and accounting purposes, and to third parties in compliance with legal requirements. The subjects belonging to the above-mentioned categories perform the function of Data Supervisor or operate totally autonomously as distinct Data Controllers.

7. Transfer data outside the EU

CDP will carry out the processing in accordance with the procedures permitted by the current law, such as consent of the Data Subject, adoption of standard clauses approved by the European Commission, selection of subjects adhering to international programs for the free circulation of data (e.g. EU-USA Privacy Shield) or operating in countries considered safe by the European Commission.

8. Rights of the Data Subject

You are informed that art. 15-22 GDPR entitle the Data Subjects to exercise specific rights. These rights can be exercised by request sent by post to Cassa depositi e prestiti S.p.A., via Goito, n. 4, 00185 Rome, att. Personal Data Protection Officer, or by email directly to said Officer, at the contacts provided in point 1. The Data Subject also has the right to raise complaints with the Italian Data Protection Authority.
